Biography

Dr. Gilbert has given over 5,000 speeches and seminars around the country on his unique peak performance methods. He has also spoken at over 500 elementary, middle and high-schools and at dozens of colleges, universities and educational conferences. Business, educational, and medical groups invite him to address their meetings because they know that the same mental skills that make people winners on the athletic field are just as effective in the boardroom, the classroom or any other arena where people work to achieve success.

As a professor at Montclair State University he teaches Sports Psychology and also researches athletic motivation and teamwork, studies that have helped literally thousands of athletes defeat their mental problems. He has studied the mental skills of not only the world's greatest athletes, but also the most successful business executives and highest-earning sales people. Dr. Gilbert motivates tens of thousands of people around the world on a daily basis through both his Success Hotline and his on-line Success Newsletter. He is the former editor of Bits and Pieces Magazine.
